

The Values of The Afghanistan Society (revised 29 7 19)

Mission Statement

The Afghanistan Society is an independent, apolitical and nonpartisan group, open to all, which aims to showcase the richness of Afghan life and culture. It aims to raise awareness and promote dialogue by arranging and supporting events in the UK that bring together those with an interest in or experience of ongoing development and cultural matters in the country.

All Members are expected to

- establish the values of the Afghanistan Society by their commitment to the Mission Statement
- help enhance the Foundation's standing and sustainability.

As a Member of The Afghanistan Society, I will

- uphold the independent, apolitical and nonpartisan nature of the group
 - help the Society to build a culture of integrity, transparency, and accountability
 - treat all members with respect whatever their religion, ethnicity, culture and politics.
- and
- contribute to the development of the Society through financial and/or practical support according to my resources and contacts
 - ensure my involvement is personal and has no pecuniary interest for me or my organisation.

If you do not act in a manner that supports and furthers the aims of the Society, your membership may be rescinded.

The Afghanistan Society

www.afghanistansociety.org.uk

Email: info@afghanistansociety.org.uk

The Afghanistan Society is the working name of the Afghan Refugee Information Network (ARIN), a charity registered in the UK, charity no 327194.

Updated at AS meeting 15 Aug 2019

KP